Worship

This week during Worship, we have been thinking about comfort and joy. For Christians, Christmas is a time of many different emotions. Joy comes not from what they have, but from celebrating the birth of Jesus. Both lowly shepherds and lofty Magi brought gifts for baby Jesus. Christians similarly give gifts, remembering that God has given the greatest gift of all – his son. In response to God's generosity, Christians believe they should be generous too – especially to those in need – bringing comfort and doing so joyfully. In our classes, we discussed how we could bring comfort to others at this time of year.
