Menu Week One

Worship

This week in collective worship we looked at the power of words and thought about how they can be swords or medicine. We looked at Proverbs 12:18 'Careless words can pierce like a sword, but the words of the wise bring healing'. We are encouraging the children to really think about what they say and ensure their words are kind. In celebration worship we recognised those who keep to our school values.

Headteacher's Awards: Congratulations to:

- May W in Rowling, for always actively listening to others, asking questions and making relevant comments to improve her learning.
- Chloe C in Fleming, for having a positive attitude towards all her learning and for setting a wonderful example to others.
- Jackson H in Parks, for showing resilience and determination in all aspects of his learning.
- Sesehang L in Columbus, for his effort and progress in English and always striving to improve.
